CIVIL CEREMONY

A civil ceremony is performed by a judge. It officially changes your legal status from "single" to "married" and it is valid worldwide.

This ceremony requires the wedding couple to be in Cancún 3 business days before the wedding day (not including Mexican official holidays). Some documentation and the vows to be exchanged are in Spanish. The ceremony lasts approximately 15 to 25 minutes.

Civil ceremony documentation required:

- Both of your birth certificates (original and apostilled copies) translated into Spanish by an authorized translator
- Tourist cards or visas
- Valid passports (valid for at least 6 months)- original and copies
- Fill an application form with (names, addresses, nationalities, occupations and ages of bridal couple, both parents and witnesses)
- Health certificate and blood tests done in Mexico
- Four witnesses over 18 years old: two for the bride and two for the groom
- Witnesses need valid passports - original and copies

- If widowed, you will need the deceased spouse's death certificate and apostilled translated into Spanish by an authorized translator
- If divorced, you will need a copy of your final divorce decree (original and apostilled copy) translated into Spanish by an authorized translator. You must be divorced for over 1 year
- If the bride or groom are adopted, adoption papers are required

SYMBOLIC CEREMONY

A symbolic or non-denominational ceremony is a promise of love between two people. Is not legally recognized as marriage ceremony, it allows you to personalize every moment of this special occasion with heartfelt readings, meaningful blessings, favorite traditions, and even exchanging your own vows.

At Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancún, we only offer Civil and Symbolic ceremonies. Catholic marriages can only be held at a Catholic church and require additional paperwork from your church at home.

MULTICULTURAL WEDDINGS

Celebrating your union away from home, does not mean you cannot bring your faith, your traditions and your own personality to Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancún.

Our team of Romance & Celebration Experts will help you plan every detail to create your perfect wedding. From an intimate ceremony to an elaborate reception, this celebration will be a true testament of your love.
